

Universidad
Francisco de
Vitoria
Business U
UFV Madrid

Iñigo Barrera

Director Banco Santander

Iñigo has a Degree and Business Economics at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid. He has complemented this Economics background with and PDD (Managerial Development Program) at IESE Business School.

He has a long professional experience in the banking and insurance sector. He has been Director at different areas of the Banco Santander Group and the Banque Brusselless Lambert.

He is an expert in financial markets, commercial banking and capital management. Currently he works as a Consultant in the development and implementation of transformation projects affecting to strategy models.